“ Carol & Jim were valued members of the Atlanta Blues Society and would come to our Sunday meetings all the time. Carol was always smiling and sweet and loved listening to the music especially when Jim would play in the Jam. She will missed and her loving spirit will be fondly remembered.

“ When think of Carol, I think of her with Jim by her side. Her traditions with dolls the same color as the flowers on an azalea bush, the dolls in a wedding ceremony, and to be with her, her beautiful loving spirit. The world is a better place because Carol was here and I am grateful to have been blessed with her friendship.
