
Louis John Mancin III

Louis John Mancin, III, passed away at home under the care of hospice on Saturday, March 1, 2014 at the age of 67. John was born in Birmingham, AL on May 13, 1946 and grew up in Homewood, AL. He attended OLS and graduated from Shades Valley High School, class of 1964. He then attended Marion Military Institute, Auburn University, and Christian Brothers College in Memphis, TN. He returned to Birmingham in 1969 to take over the family business, Evans Services, which he ran until 1997. Upon semi-retirement, John became involved in a 2nd career as a broker in the health insurance industry. He was involved with Civitans and was Past President of the Associated Plumbing-Heating-Cooling Contractors of Alabama. John is survived by his wife of almost 46 years, Lois Nickey Mancin, two daughters, Shannon Mancin Stewart (Art), and Nickey Mancin Langford (Sean) and their children, Caleb and Nathan. He is also survived by a sister, Elizabeth Mancin Plylar of Huntsville. He was preceded in death by his parents, Louis John Mancin, Jr. and Elizabeth Helmick Mancin, and a sister, Cathy Mancin Baggett. Visitation services will be held in the Church Parlor at Vestavia Hills United Methodist Church on Friday, March 7 from 11:00 am to 1:00 pm, with a family service following at the Columbarium Gardens. The family requests that in lieu of flowers, donations be made to the Robert E. Reed GI Oncology Research Foundation, The Greater Birmingham Humane Society, or the charity of your choice in memory of John Mancin. Special thank you to the excellent care from his doctors, including Dr. Ashraff, Dr. Tincher, and especially his hospice nurse, Margaret Trechsel, who assisted our family during these past few months.

Published in The Birmingham News from Mar. 4 to Mar. 7, 2014
